WEAVER-GILHULEY.
Pensacola friends have received the following announcements:
Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Weaver announce the marriage of their daughter to
Mr. Charles Henry Gilhuley on Wednesday, the twenty-sixth of July nineteen hundred and five Danville, Illinois.
Mr. and Mrs. Gilhuley will be at home, after August 8, at 608 North Spring, this city.

MISS PFEIFFER'S AT HOME.
Miss Louise Pfeiffer gave a delightful "at home" Friday night, that attracted all her friends during the early part of the evening. Later the young people held sway and had a merry time enjoying various games, including "Lotto" and a new game called "And Her Name Was Maud," which proved even more amusing than the original. At the close six prizes were awarded to the successful contestants.
The reception hall parlor and large dining room of the residence, 123 West Government, were handsomely decorated in pink and green, a quantity of beautiful ferns and palms being a very attractive feature throughout.
Miss Pfeiffer was beautifully gowned in white silk tissue with light blue ribbons, which were very becoming to her girlish beauty.
Mrs. John Pfeiffer assisted her daughter, as did Miss Carrie Kramer. A delicious supper was served at an attractively appointed table that was large enough for the seventy-five guests to be served at the same time. Charming music was enjoyed during the evening, both vocal and instrumental.

THE JASPERSON SISTERS AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
Those sweet singers, "The Jasperson Sisters" who have been drawing crowds to the Salvation Army meetings for a week past, will sing at the Young People's meeting in the Presbyterian church this evening at 7 o'clock. The young ladies are from Baldwin county, Alabama, and are as lovely as they are musical. It is a treat to hear them and the church will doubtless be crowded.

LITTLE MISS LIND'S EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY.
Miss Elizabeth Lind celebrated the eighth anniversary of her birth at the home of her parents on Alcaniz by entertaining a number of her little girl and boy friends who gave her some very pretty presents.

The place of honor on the snowy white table was occupied by a large and beautifully decorated birthday cake bearing eight candles of varied colors, with which ice cream, lemonade and other delicacies were served by Mrs. Lind, Mrs. Peak of Little Bayou, Mrs. Alden and Mrs. Jahan.

Miss Elizabeth's guests were Petren Unson, Geraldine Borras, Antoinette DeLustro, Grace Ann Rosebud Lovelless, Clotilde DeLustro, Annie May Buchanan, Idellitha, Valerie and Esplanade Borras, Michael DeLustro. Among the presents was a handsome piano for the little hostess from her mother who, assisted by Miss Geraldine Borras and Miss Antoinette DeLustro played a number of enjoyable selections for the entertainment of the company.

FLORIDA'S C. E. HYMN AT BALTIMORE.

The Journal is in receipt of a copy of the official souvenir and guide book of the 22nd International Christian Endeavor Convention assembled in Baltimore, Md., July 5 to 12, which, besides a feast of other good things contains the state hymn of each delegation. Florida's, sung to the spirited air of "Speed Away"—is as follows:

Florida For Christ.
Florida for Christ! Let the shout be upborne
By the winds of the eve, by the breezes of morn.
Let the sound of our voices ring out full and free
Neath the pine and palmetto, from the gulf to the sea.
Our watchword, our prayer,
Our purpose sincere—
Florida! Florida! Florida for Christ.
Florida for Christ! Oh, hasten the day
When Jesus our Nation and State shall hold sway!
When we battle for right with each God-given power,
When the spirit of love shall pervade every hour,
When our State shall be free
And our offering will be
Florida! Florida! Florida for Christ.

HAVING A GAY TIME.

The Atlanta News says:
Miss Evelyn Thornton returns next week to her home in Pensacola. She is the guest of her aunt Mrs. Chipley Setze.

Mrs. Thomas Burke entertained at a very elegantly appointed card party this afternoon at her home on Spring street. The occasion was in compliment to two charming visitors, Miss Evelyn Thornton, of Pensacola, and Miss Elizabeth Hodges, of Annapolis. It was a sunflower party, every small detail being carried out in the sunflower effect. The score cards and ices were in the shape of these flowers, and the cakes were embossed in miniature flowers. During the game punch was served. Mrs. Burke's gracious hospitality was enjoyed by the following guests:

Miss Thornton, Miss Hodges, Mrs. William Spalding, Mrs. Luther Willford, Miss Floyd Willford, Mrs. Edward T. Brown, Mrs. M. O. Jackson, Mrs. William Florence, Miss Gregory of Virginia, Mrs. J. W. Setze, Mrs. L. F. Terrell, Mrs. Peter Irwin, Mrs. Lud-

ST. ANDREWS

Special to The Journal.

St. Andrews, July 28.—Mrs. Harry Sheppard and two attractive little daughters, Barbara and Frances, of Bohemia, are visiting Lieut. and Mrs. F. H. Sheppard this week.

Mr. Rawls, superintendent of the State Reformatory, and family, are enjoying St. Andrews at this writing and expect to remain some time.

Rev. Mr. Conway was a passenger on the Monday's trip of the "Cleopatra" en route to Pensacola.

Quite a number of the Blakeley, Ga. tourists took passage for Pensacola on the east bound trip of the Tarpon on Wednesday, via Apalachicola.

Mrs. J. M. Conway and children are visiting in Cromanton this week.

Mr. Charles Gonzalez, of Pensacola, is a guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Sheppard for a short time.

St. Andrews is full to overflowing with visitors and many find it very difficult to find accommodations. While we do not intend to use this space for advertising, yet we wish most sincerely that some one who reads this may feel inclined to come to our town with capital and ability to run a first-class twenty or thirty room hotel. It would pay.

We have a few very pleasant boarding houses but a good hotel is needed. Mrs. F. H. Sheppard gave another one of her delightful lunch parties to a number of friends, complimentary to her visitors on Wednesday, going to the Gulf beach.

MARIANNA

Special to The Journal.
